Japan Oil Engineering Co., Ltd.

Important Notice Concerning Fraudulent/Scam E-mails

Japan Oil Engineering Co., Ltd. (JOE) has recently been informed that fraudulent/scam e-mails are circulating under the name of Japan Oil Engineering Co., Ltd. (JOE) or our officers, seeking financial/business partners and/or other business opportunities, or offering job opportunities.

JOE's name and address are shown on them but they are not from us; they have no relation with JOE.

If you receive any of them, do not reply and we strongly recommend that you delete such e-mails immediately without clicking on any links, so that you can protect yourself against identity theft, fraud and any viruses.

We already reported to the police department regarding this matter and have taken counsel with them.

*These e-mails may contain links to fake/phishing websites imitating JOE's. We have no relation with those websites. Please avoid linking to those websites and delete such e-mails immediately.
